

Journal of the House

TWENTY-NINTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Tuesday, February 25, 2014, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker Merrick in the chair.

The roll was called with 122 members present.

Rep. Thompson was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Brian Bauer, Salina, guest of Rep. Johnson:

Almighty and Gracious God, we lift before you during this turnaround week the concerns we have and the challenges and work that is yet to be done.

As St. Paul once advised, “Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances,” let us be about our tasks with full hearts.

Teach us to debate the issues before us with respect and understanding.

Guide us according to your will and purpose, that we may be known by all as your loyal servants.

Show us your grace and inspire us to reveal your grace to others. At the end of our day and our debates, give us peace.

Lead us all, in your mercy, to be faithful servants to all the people of Kansas. As we might take rightful pride in office or party, help us to put all of that aside so that we can continue to do the work of the people—of all the people.

Direct and guide each one of us by your greatest command: to love one another. Teach us each waking hour to be our neighbor’s keeper.

In these and in all things we seek your guidance, ask for your forgiveness, and dedicate ourselves to your never failing grace.

O God, in your blessed name, we pray. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Weigel.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Winn are spread upon the Journal:

Ladies and Gentlemen, today I have the distinct honor and privilege to welcome members of six Kansas chapters of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority to the Kansas House of Representatives.

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority was founded on January 13, 1913 by 22 collegiate women in Washington, D.C. on the campus of Howard University. Their mission was to promote academic excellence; provide scholarships to those in need; to provide assistance to the under-served; to educate and stimulate participation in the establishment of positive public policy; and to highlight issues to provide solutions for problems in communities.

Today, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has more than 1000 chapters worldwide and has initiated over 200,000 members. The collegiate and alumnae chapters are located throughout the United States, England, Japan, Germany, Virgin Island, Bermuda, Bahamas, Jamaica, and the Republic of Korea.

As a guide in creating its national programs, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority uses its Five Point Programmatic Thrust of economic development, educational development, international awareness and involvement; physical and mental health, and political awareness and involvement.

For your information, and as a tribute to Black History Month, I would like to acknowledge a few outstanding women (in addition those present in the gallery) who were also members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority:
