The Senate Committee on Ways and Means amended the bill to make a technical correction to the name of the fund for the claim against DCF and removed a claim for $1,776 against the Kansas Department for Aging and Disability Services (KDADS) due to the claim being paid outside of the Special Claims Against the State process by KDADS following it being approved by the Joint Committee.

No proponent, neutral, or opponent testimony was provided.

A fiscal note was not available at the time of the Senate Committee's action.
